1. The Uniunea Tineretului Muncitoresc of Rumania is also known as "Utemist" or as UTM. It is the Union of Working Youth of Rumania, controlling political work and activities by, and among, Rumanian youth. It has a profound influence over young people of all classes, since it reaches into all aspects of their life.
2. Organization is, in general, based on that of the Soviet "Komsomols". The Central Committee of the UTM, with headquarters at Bucharest, is organized into five sections:
  - a. Section for Higher Education
  - b. " " Secondary Education
  - c. " " Young Workers
  - d. " " Military Youth
  - e. " " Pioneer Children (up to 13 years).
3. In a general way, the UTM prepares the cadres for the Communist Party, or Labor Rumania (Partidul Muncitoresc Roman.). Once an individual has actually entered the Communist Party, he ceases to be an "Utemist," but he is likely often to be referred to as a "former Utemist." The expressed purpose of UTM is elevation of the ideological level of youth, and all activities designed for this purpose are modeled on the general ideas of Soviet Communism.
4. The organization has various other, subordinate regional organizations. There are eighteen of these, corresponding to the eighteen administrative divisions of the Rumanian People's Republic. The Republic itself has had these eighteen divisions since 1951. Each region is, in turn, divided into several "rayons". The "rayons" themselves have certain similarly subordinate organizations, which depend either on the rayons themselves, or directly on the regions. In addition to the local UTM organization for each city or village, each institution also has a base organization of the UTM.

5. The basic organizations of the different institutions are subdivided into brigades. Each brigade has branches of its own to deal with such matters as organization, propaganda, agitation, education, arts, culture, sports, finance, and reconstruction. According to what local requirements may necessitate, two or three of these different branches of the basic organization may be combined into a single branch. Each basic organization has a committee that is in permanent contact with the Central Committee of the UTM which, in its turn, is linked up with the Communist Party.

6. The members of the Central Committee of the UTM are:

- a. First secretary: Gheorghe Florescu, also a member of the Committee for the Defense of the Peace of the Rumanian People's Republic.
